II. PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, creator of heaven and earth, of all that is seen and unseen.

I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, one in being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he was born of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered, died and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in fulfillment of the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

I acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. AMEN.

With firm faith I believe also all that is contained in the word of God, written or handed down, and is proposed by the Church –either through solemn judgment or through the ordinary and universal magisterium-as divinely revealed and to be believed.

I also firmly embrace and hold all and each that are definitively proposed by the Church concerning the doctrine of faith and morals.

Moreover, I adhere with religious obedience (obsequium) of will and intellect to the doctrines which either the Roman Pontiff or the college of bishops enunciate when they exercise the authentic magisterium even if they intend to proclaim these doctrines by a non-definitive act.

CODE OF VIRTUE

Recognizing the vital and increasingly important role that radio plays as a means of social communication for the evangelization and catechesis of our world, and the desire of the Catholic Radio Association “to bring together Catholic radio apostolates, program providers and the hierarchy of the Catholic Church in order that this means of social communication be used effectively and in obedience to the decrees of the Second Vatican Council and the magisterium of the Church”, and because the Association recognizes that “the fruits of the apostolate depend on the depth of spiritual life, on the intensity of prayer, on continual formation and on sincere adherence to the Church's directives”, the Association has adopted and each of its members has subscribed to the following Code of Virtue:

1. In my personal and apostolic life I will always seek to act in Christian charity in my words, thoughts and deeds.
2. In humility I recognize that what the Lord is accomplishing through me is due wholly to his merciful love and I give great thanks to him in return.
3. I commit myself to prayer for my apostolate, all other Catholic radio apostolates and for the whole Church, especially her shepherds.
4. I pledge to work openly and honestly with others in Catholic radio for the greater glory of God.

I subscribe to the above Profession of Faith and Code of Virtue.
